2 Die on Roads and 2 Drown, in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Four persons died violently in Arkansas yesterday, two in a highway crash and two by drowning.

William Harold Spicer, 24, of Widener, and Mrs. Phelma Smith, 25, of Benton Harbor, Mich., were killed and Spicer's wife was critically injured in the collision of an automobile and a transport truck on U. S. Highway 80 near Forrest City.

Two Negroes drowned in separate accidents near Morrilton.

State Trooper Leslie George said the driver of the truck involved in the accident near Forrest City was Walter Hudson of El Dorado. Hudson escaped with minor injuries.

Mrs. Betty Lou Spicer, 22, was hospitalized at Memphis. Mrs. Smith was visiting the Spicers as a passenger in their car.

Hudson told officers the truck slid onto a shoulder made slick by heavy rain and skidded sideways when he tried to pull off the road. The collision followed.

Coroner Robert D. Harris of Morrilton identified the drowning victims as Henry Vesley, and Johnny C. Donald, 17, of Union Chapel.

Vesley drowned while swimming in a lake on Whitworth Rockefeller's farm top Petit Jean Mountain. The victim was attending a picnic sponsored by a Conway Negro civic club.

Donald drowned in a stock pond, Harris said. Companions told authorities he disappeared before rescuers could reach him.

The bodies of both drowning victims were recovered.

Mother Dies, Family Hurt in Car Crash

CROSSETT, Ark. (AP) — A 23-year-old mother was fatally injured, her husband was hurt slightly and two children escaped injury in an automobile accident here today.

Police said Mrs. Betty Manis of Lawton, Okla. died about two hours after the family car, driven by her husband, James, left Highway 82 and struck a tree. Manis was treated for minor injuries at a Crosssett hospital.

Crosssett residents cared for the Manis children, Judy, 3, and James Jr., a pending arrival of relatives from Lawton.

The boy told State Trooper Paul Hamilton his father fell asleep at the wheel of the car.

Soap-Box Derby at Magnolia

MAGNOLIA, Ark. (AP) — Some 50 boys will pilot home-made racers down a steep ramp here tomorrow in an effort to win a trip to Akron, Ohio, as the champion of the Ark-La-Tex Regional Soap Box Derby.

The winner in the Derby here, sponsored by the Magnolia Junior Chamber of Commerce, will compete in the All-American Soap Box Derby in Akron Aug. 16.

The derby will be raced at the Magnolia Airport.

In addition to the speed contest, cars will be judged on construction and design features. Boys are required to build their own racers.

Girl-Slayer Held to Be Legally Sane

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A psychiatrist has pronounced Robert Ervin, held in the murder of a six-year-old girl, legally sane.

Ervin said in a signed statement he strangled and stabbed Dolores Stafford Monday under the influence of a drug.

Ervin said in a signed statement Dr. Genevieve Shannon, director of the California Institute for Women at Corona, was appointed by police to conduct the sanity test of the 20-year-old boy.

After interviewing Ervin at the police station here yesterday, she reported he was legally responsible for his act.

Ervin denied a police contention that the skin child was raped. The girl was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. St. Elmo Stafford, formerly of Fort Smith, Ark.

Fulbright for Limitation of Vista Power

WASHINGTON (AP) Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark) called yesterday for legislation which would permit denial of a passport only if a grantee it could "create the likelihood of imminent danger to the national security."

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said his proposal would permit the State Department to inquire into an applicant's political activities in the Communist Party.

But Fulbright said in a statement in the Congressional Record, his bill would not permit the department to turn down an applicant solely because of such membership.

Hoffa Accused of Threat to Negro Drivers

By G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate rackets probes seeks more information today about James R. Hoffa's alleged threat that "it might not be healthy" for Negro truck drivers to haul freight into Detroit.

Hoffa, international president of the Teamsters Union many times has denounced racial discrimination. He has declared his union would have none of it.

Hoffa originally had been scheduled to testify today, but the committee said it probably will be Monday before he gets back on the witness stand.

The committee said it was calling a Negro truck driver to tell of his experiences with a race-color line Hoffa allegedly has drawn around the territory of his Detroit home union local 299.

Committee Counsel Robert F. Kennedy declined to name the witness in advance, but said the man now lives in California and was working out of Youngstown, Ohio, during the 1954-55 period in question.

The story of the alleged color barrier came in testimony Thursday by George S. Maxwell, Cleveland, Ohio, relations consultant to an organization of truck line owners who bargain with the Teamsters union.

Maxwell said Hoffa telephoned him in Cleveland to protest because the Ohio Northern Truck Lines of Youngstown, Ohio, was hiring Negro truck drivers to haul steel across country to Detroit.

Maxwell said Hoffa told him that "Local 299 did not like over-the-road (cross country) drivers of the colored race coming into Detroit."

He said Hoffa warned him "it might not be healthy for them" if any more Negroes drove trucks into the local's Detroit jurisdiction.

Execution Stay Is Denied to Earl Leggett

WASHINGTON (AP) — Justice Charles Evans Whitaker of the Supreme Court has denied a stay of execution for Emmett Earl Leggett, convicted Arkansas murderer.

Leggett, 22, is under sentence to die July 24.

Denial of his plea for a stay was announced today at the Supreme Court. The plea, filed earlier this week, was forwarded to Whitaker at Santa Fe, N. M., where he was attending a judicial conference.

Cut-Back in Missiles to Save Billions

By JOE F. KANE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon's new cutback on Army and Air Force antiaircraft missiles will cut about 1½ billion dollars from planned missile spending over a period of years, Congress has been told.

Budget Director Maurice H. Stans said that reduction would be offset partly by a 1.7-billion-dollar increase for the Army's Nike-Zeus, an antimissile missile still being developed.

Figures Stans gave to the Senate's Defense Preparedness subcommittee last month showed a 108-million-dollar saving for the fiscal year which ended June 30, and another 81 millions in the current fiscal year. The remainder of the cut will be spread over a period of four or five years in the future.

Stans' testimony, made public Thursday night, listed these spending changes under the master plan.

Nike-Hercules — In the aggregate, a reduction of 489 million dollars in the program, representing a reduction of 16 squadrons. The Army Missile has a range of up to 160 miles and carries an atomic warhead.

Noname — The reduction was 740 million dollars over the life of the program, with a reduction of 16 squadrons. The Air Force supersonic intercepter missile will have an eventual range of 400 miles.

Nike-Zeus — An increase of 17 million dollars in the Army missile designed to knock down enemy intercontinental ballistic missiles.

SAGE Direction and Combat Centers — The reduction was 3 million dollars. SAGE is a major defense communications network. There was no reduction in the number of centers, but two of the planned centers will not be built.

A net reduction of 141 million dollars was shown for radar equipment.

Extra Session Seen to Block Integration

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The possibility that Gov. Orval E. Faubus may call a special legislative session which would enact new measures to block integration confronted the Little Rock School Board today.

As the board announced plans for studying the mechanics of opening the city's four public high schools, Faubus said he believed there were loop holes in federal court integration mandates.

"I think there is something the Legislature can do to delay any integration," the governor told a news conference yesterday.

He declined to elaborate. Nor would he say whether he will summon a special session of the Legislature before school starts in September.

In 1958, Faubus called a special session to obtain laws for resisting federal integration decrees. The Legislature gave him a school closing act and a school of other anti-integration measures.

The governor shut Little Rock's public high schools Sept. 12, the day the U.S. Supreme Court ordered the school board to implement integration.

But last month a federal court at Little Rock threw out the school-closing measure and a companion student transfer aid law.

The court's action stripped Faubus of his most potent anti-integration weapons. He is appealing the decision to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Still on the books are two state pupil placement acts which some observers think the Little Rock School Board will try to use in an effort to hold integration to a minimum.

Everett Tucker Jr., president of the school board, said yesterday these measures will be discussed at a board meeting Tuesday. He said the board also will fix specific dates for school registration at the meeting.

Presumably, Negroes wishing to enroll in previously all-white schools will try to do so during the registration period. Any action on pupil placement probably would be taken after registration.

The school board has said it wants to open the public high schools, even with some integration.

Tucker also said the board may send some of its members to Charlotte, N.C., and Norfolk, Va., to examine the workings of pupil placement laws in those cities.

One of Arkansas' pupil placement laws, an initiated act of 1956, was based on a Virginia measure which since has been struck down by a federal court. The second, Act 461 of 1959, followed the wording of an Alabama placement law which was held by the U.S. Supreme Court to be valid on its face, although the high court left open the issue of the constitutionality of its application.

A difference between the two Arkansas acts: The 1956 measure specifically excluded race as a factor that may be considered in placing a pupil, while the 1959 act omits the spelled-out exclusion.

Faubus had no comment on the appointment yesterday of W. C. McDonald, 41, to the Little Rock School Board.

McDonald, manager of a newspaper supply house, was named to fill a vacancy on the six-member board caused by the recent resignation of Henry L. Hubbard, Hubbard, Pulaski Rep. J. H. Cottrill Jr., and Frank Mackey were named to the board by the Pulaski County Board of Education as replacements for three ardent segregationist members recalled in a May 25 election.

The new board member said he believed in public schools and thought they should be opened despite "our feelings about integration and segregation."

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas' two pupil placement laws were attacked yesterday by the Negro plaintiffs in a pending federal court suit which seeks integration of the Dillaway School District near Pine Bluff.

A brief filed by attorneys for the plaintiffs charged that the placement acts are part of a broad state plan aimed at avoiding compliance with federal court integration decrees.

The plaintiffs are parents of three Negro children who tried to enter the all-white Dillaway School near Pine Bluff last fall. They charged the case to court after the children were reassigned to a Negro school.

A federal judge has taken the case under advisement.

Arkansas' pupil placement measures allow consideration of numerous factors in assigning pupils to schools. Race is not among the factors.

Haunted by Sight of Dying Buddy, Mountain Climber Goes Back, Recovers Body

GRINDELWALD, Switzerland (AP) — "I had to go and get him down, I could not stand the sight of it anymore."

"For two years I had the vision of the body suspended on the wall before me. Every time my eyes turned toward the Eiger, I had the terrible vision of this abandoned body. It became a kind of obsession with me."

"As a guide and a Christian, I had to do something. That is why I volunteered."

This was Adolf Jaun's explanation of his perilous descent Thursday on a steel cable to remove the body of Stefano Longhi, who died two years ago trying to scale the north face of 13,000-foot Mt. Eiger.

Longhi and another Italian mountaineer, Claudio Corti, went to the Eiger on Aug. 3, 1957, and had climbed together for a week before their fall. Both were pinned to the mountain face, hanging by their climbing ropes.

Ski planes flew winches and steel cables to the top of the Eiger, and a guide was lowered. Corti was hauled up Aug. 11, but a violent blizzard stopped rescuers from going after Longhi. The next day observers scanned the vertical rock wall with telescopes and found the 44-year-old Italian had died during the night.

Attempts then to recover the body were abandoned because of the extreme danger. But the body at times could be seen clearly from Grindelwald and the surrounding valley. A Dutch newspaper offered to finance a new recovery attempt.

Again winches and cables were flown to the peak and set up by a group of 15 Swiss guides. Jaun volunteered and salvaging proceeded from the steel cable. He made the recovery in a shower of brittle granite. The body had been perfectly preserved by the cold.

Jaun told newsmen yesterday the visual defect was caused by a cost behind the eyeball.

The ailment is not progressive, the governor said, and his physicians plan no surgery to correct the condition.

Recently Faubus went to St. Louis for treatment of the eye.

At his news conference, the governor also said he may go to Birmingham, Ala., July 20 to address the state convention of the Alabama American Legion, after he wanted to fly, but if the weather is bad at that time he will stay in Arkansas.

Faubus said he was uncertain about attending the National Conference of Governors at San Juan, Puerto Rico, Aug. 2-5. Faubus does not want to fly, he added, and he does not want to leave her behind.

Religious Riot Has Soviets Worried Still

KRASNIE FABRYCZNY, Poland (AP) — Communist authorities still show uneasiness two weeks after a religious riot in this town in southeast Poland they thought was a Communist showpiece.

Orders are out for more arrests in a roundup to check agitation for construction of a Catholic church. Local persons say at least 300 have been picked up, although officials say no more than 26 are under arrest.

Tadeusz Marx, Communist chief in the town and chairman of the local council, warned:

"Before we build a church, which would cost millions of Zlotys we must build more schools which also cost millions."

Roman Catholic officials said the Communists are reluctant to admit that residents of their "model" town prefer a church to other new buildings.

Communist militiamen armed with submachine guns nightly patrol Lublin, the nearest big city, in fear the arrest will spread there.

HONOLULU (AP) — Werner Von Braun, Army missile expert, says the United States "can fall into a dangerous trap" in the missile race with Russia and we persist in looking back to see how fast the other fellow is running.

"It behooves us to run just as fast as we can and let him worry about keeping pace," Von Braun told a news conference Thursday night at the A-50 of the United States Army, an office organization.

No Break Seen in Impending Steel Strike

By NORMAN WALKER

NEW YORK (AP) — The chief steel industry negotiator said today he had detected no change for the better in negotiations aimed at averting a nationwide steel strike next Tuesday midnight.

"I don't feel any change in my pulse beat one way or the other," was the way R. Conrad Cooper put it when asked by newsmen what the prospects were. Cooper is executive vice president of U.S. Steel Corp. and the leader of the industry's fight against higher pay demands.

Cooper and the industry's bargaining team resumed direct talks this morning with a similar four-man steelworkers union team headed by union President David J. McDonald.

Cooper declined to say whether the industry plans to start banking furnaces and tapering off production this weekend in preparation for a strike. But neither side expressed any settlement hopes.

Direct bargaining was recessed most of Thursday to let both sides huddle separately to reassess their positions.

McDonald announced this morning he has summoned the union's 33-man executive board and 145-man wage policy committee to meetings here Monday. McDonald declined to attach any significance to the meetings, saying he merely wants to bring fellow union officials "up to date on developments, if any."

This morning's session lasted only an hour before it broke up with the following joint statement:

"The parties have been exchanging data and have recessed temporarily to gather additional information needed when conferences resume probably this afternoon."

It was explained another meeting later today is definitely planned but no time had yet been set for it.

The union was reliably reported to be banking on a sudden industry offer, or a departure on the part of one or more major steel companies from the solid industry front to break the negotiating stalemate.

The companies have persisted in maintaining that any new steel labor cost increase would touch off a new wage-price spiral. The union claims the industry can afford higher wages and other concessions. Workers presently average $3.10 per hour earnings.

Formal negotiations lasted only an hour Thursday, recessing to today to let both sides huddle separately to review their positions.

Union Shrugs Off Oil Firm Accusation

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — An American Oil Co. charge that a union strike at its El Dorado refinery is illegal was shrugged off by a union official yesterday.

"Just another harassment by the company," said Robert Bickles of St. Louis, district representative for the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers.

American Oil this week filed an unfair labor practices charge against the union with the National Labor Relations Board. The company accused the union of striking illegally because it failed to notify the Arkansas Commission of Labor of contract termination as required by federal law.

The 372 union workers at American Oil walked out July 1. Among other things, the strikers protested that management had fanned out some work once handled by union members.

Bickles insisted the union had sent proper notification to all appropriate agencies, including the Commission of Labor. He said a tracer would be put on the notice to state Labor Commissioner Clarence B. Thornbrough. The commissioner said Wednesday his office had not received the union's advisory.

Negotiations continued at the strike-menaced Monsanto Chemical Co. and at the Lion Oil Co. refinery here. No progress reports were issued.

Nation Headed for Highest Traffic Toll

CHICAGO (AP) — The National Safety Council says it is alarmed at what it called the nation's soaring traffic death toll. Unless the number of deaths are reduced sharply, the council says, there will be 39,300 traffic deaths this year. That is 2,500 more than in 1958.

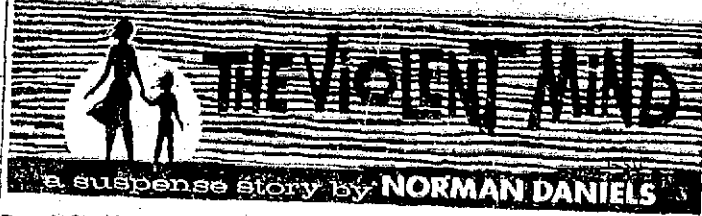

Howard Pyle, president of the council, told a news conference Thursday that traffic deaths in the last five months are a per cent higher than in the same period last year.

"We are alarmed," he said. "If the public could be alerted and inspired to adopt protective measures, lives could be saved."

The council suggested inauguration of these safety measures at once.

Some law enforcement agencies where it is known a report high accident locations to remove physical hazards, studies and penalties to see if they are deterring violations, suspend drivers. Licenses of accident prone and violent repeat drivers, more rigid enforcement of drunk driving laws, and step up public education for safe driving and safe walking.

THE VIOLENT MIND

By NORMAN DANIELS

THE STORY: Diane Paige believed she had fully recovered from a temporary mental illness. Then she found a lost child. The child disappeared and so did all traces of the child's brief visit to her beach cottage. Diane calls Casey, her husband, who commutes to his law office in Boston. Casey returns, believes her and thinks that Mel Calder, the village storekeeper, knows something about the child.

CHAPTER X

They searched the house. They found nothing. No trace of the little girl.

It was after 11 when Diane and Casey went out to the beach.

Hand in hand they walked slowly across the hard packed sand near the water's edge.

Once more the tide was coming in and the sea was definitely more alive than it had been that morning. The beach curved slightly about half a mile from the cottage and, as they neared the curve, Diane ran ahead, out of sheer joy and happiness in his faith.

So she was the first to see the small fire on the beach. At almost the same moment, the wind veered toward her and she smelled the odor of burning oil perhaps kerosene.

It was a limited fire, right at the water's edge and it must have been burning for a few moments, because it was already dying.

She turned and called to Casey. "What is it?" he asked.

"There has to be another shoe button. Casey, just one! Please help me find it. Please, Casey—then I'll know my mind is all right. There has to be another shoe button."

"I don't know," Casey said. "But if we don't get there, whatever was burning will be washed into the sea. The tide's coming fast."

He broke into a run and, with his longer, and stronger legs, he made better time than she, but even so, he was too late, for as he neared the spot, a wave came sweeping in, washed up and the embers winked out. Casey made a dive along the sand to reach the embers first.

When Diane caught up, he was lying there with the sea coming in over his sweater and khaki pants clad form. He was out of breath as he got to his feet and wiped some of the wet sand off him.

"Well, whatever it was, it's gone now. Must have been just about destroyed anyway."

She bent down and picked up what seemed to be a tiny black object and held it in the palm of her hand, as if weighing it experimentally. "Look at this, Casey. Isn't it a shoe button? An old-fashioned shoe button. See where the thread goes through the metal loop at the back."

Casey examined the object in his wife's hand. "That's what it looks like," he said. "An old shoe button. Strange thing to be burning shoes here."

"But there's no odor of burning leather," Diane said. "We couldn't have missed that."

"True," he conceded. "Who ever did this, wanted to double the precaution that there'd be nothing left. Destruction by fire, the ashes consigned to the sea. He knew how fast the tide came in. He also knew it would eliminate footprints, although I expect he waded out, to be certain, there'd be none."

"Then this shoe button must have come importance. Or whatever it was once attached to, has. Now what do they say a shoe button onto, other than a guy's shoe?"

She made a small cry in her throat.

Texarkana Phone Rate Hike Put Off

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An increase in rates at Texarkana, Ark., granted to General Telephone Co. of the Southwest, was temporarily suspended yesterday by Pulaski Circuit Judge Guy Ansler.

Ansler added conditions protecting customers that would allow the new rates to be charged anythroat and dropped down to her hands and knees and began sifting the wet sand through her fingers.

"What is it?" he asked.

"There has to be another shoe button. Casey, just one! Please help me find it. Please, Casey—then I'll know my mind is all right. There has to be another shoe button."

"I don't know," Casey said. "But if we don't get there, whatever was burning will be washed into the sea. The tide's coming fast."

McDonald Is School Board in Alford Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A 44-year-old Little Rock native who favors reopening the closed schools today was named to fill a vacancy on the Little Rock School Board. W. C. McDonald, manager of the Western Newspaper Union office here, was appointed by both the Pulaski County Board of Education and the school board. He fills a vacancy created when Henry J. Hubbard, a building contractor appointed in June resigned.

Hubbard was one of three members named to replace three former segregationist members who were ousted in a recall election in May.

McDonald's appointment was announced jointly by Little Rock Board President Everett Tucker Jr. and County Board Secretary Dr. A.B. Wetherington. He was sworn in shortly after the announcement. The dual appointment is to prevent questions about legality of how the vacancy should have been filled.

The appointment came as the board reported it will fix dates for registration of schools, including the four public high schools closed since last fall. The Board has said it intends to try to reopen the schools.

McDonald said today, "I know the feeling of the school board and I am in sympathy with their policy. I believe in public education and I believe our schools should be opened in spite of our feeling about integration and segregation."

The law which Gov. Orval F. Faubus used to close the schools to prevent continued integration at Central High School has been declared invalid by a federal court, but Faubus has said he will way.

Texarkana had petitioned for suspension of the rates, approved June 3 by the Public Service Commission, pending a review of the PSC order by the courts.

Ansler's conditions were that the firm post a surety bond of $50,000 to refund customers in case the hike is finally denied; that it must not charge higher rates on the Arkansas side of the line than on the Texas side and that in event refunds are ordered for Texas customers equal refunds are made to Arkansas customers.

Rates on the Texas side are involved in a federal court suit in East Texas.

apport the decision to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Tucker said the board would fix registration dates at a meeting next Tuesday night. A tentative calendar drawn last spring had set Aug. 25 as date for beginning registration but Tucker said that.

For Your Dogs Comfort—Go the SULFODENE Way

1. What is Sulfodene?

ANSWER: Sulfodene is a scientific liquid medication developed for the specific treatment of dog itch-sores.

2. What are "dog itch-sores"?

ANSWER: "Dog itch-sores" are the result of a fungus infection... picked up by dogs from weeds and grass. Infection is caused by a common fungus spore, alternaria tenuis. This fungus is often invisible, but research by Dr. A. C. Merrick, veterinary scientist of Brookfield, Illinois, has shown that this fungus is present on seven out of 10 scratching dogs.

3. How do you identify this fungus infection?

ANSWER: Fungus infection is often known as summer mange, "hot spots" or dry skin eczema. It may be identified by the odor of the lesions, which is similar to musty barns, moldy hay or damp, closed cellars. It may also be identified by color... in most cases there is a typical deposition of color around the lesions which dyes the coat. In lighter animals this is a rusty red, but in darker animals it may be brownish to deep amber.

4. How does Sulfodene work?

ANSWER: Sulfodene is a scientific formulation that contains an effective fungicide to kill fungus spores responsible for dog itch-sores... quickly promotes healing... sores disappear... hair grows back.

5. Is Sulfodene equally effective for cats?

ANSWER: Yes

6. How does Sulfodene differ from Scratchex?

ANSWER:

a. In the first place Sulfodene is a liquid medication, rather than a powder like Scratchex.
b. Sulfodene does not kill fleas, lice or ticks, but it is a specific for fungus infections and dog itch-sores.

Enjoy Your Traveling Before Trip to Altar

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am in my early twenties and engaged to a wonderful guy slightly older. Carter and I have been engaged for eight months and plan to be married next spring. We love each other and I want to marry him someday but I'm not sure how soon that day will be. I have an urge to travel and Carter doesn't particularly like to go places.

Once I marry, I know we'll never step out of our home town. If I do decide to see part of the world and postpone my marriage, will Carter wait for me? What do you think of all this—Marge

Dear Marge: Follow your impulse. Do your traveling now, before settling down, and you can banish the ghost forever. Restrain the urge and it will haunt you through life. You and Carter are still young, now is the time for harmless impulses. You'll just have to gamble on Carter's keeping qualities. He may understand how you feel and be willing to wait, knowing that you'll be a better wife and mother for having seen the world. On the other hand, he may be swept away by the first pretty girl he sees after you depart. It may, however, take only a very short trip to convince you that you can't live without him.

If you want to work and see the world, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my booklet "Travel While You Work." It gives ideas on pursuing a career and a yen at the same time.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Is an unmarried woman of 55 too old to accept dates from men? M. J.

Dear Mrs. M: Heavens, no. provided the dates are with freemen. A gal of 55 who is still datable is to be congratulated.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Do you approve of pregnant women wearing school uniforms? Some of our teachers stay at school almost to the last,
and to me it doesn't look right.

—Mrs. H.

Dear Mrs. H: The day when a pregnant woman looks to her for-don and stayed there until she emerged with an infant is long past. Woman-power is needed too much in the outside world to permit such persistence. We are frayed with a severe shortage of good teachers and in many localties school boards feel that as long as a girl can handle her duties, they'll use her. This is part of the thing called progress and we must as well act used to it.

Send your problem to DORO-THY DIX. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of the newspaper.

But the film chronicle will have one item of propaganda value. On the way to the Inland Steel Co.
plant in East Chicago, Ind., Wednesday, the motorcade passed a tiny, squalid slum of a few tumbled down tenements. The newsreel men trained their cameras hungrily on the slum and a few poorly dressed Negro children nearby. They had few such opportunities on the other legs of their cross country tour.

Kozlov himself was wine and dined Wednesday night at the South Shore Country Club. Edward Logelin, vice president of United States Steel Corp., was the host and steel executives were among the guests. Kozlov, a metallurgist, had toured steel plants during the day and had spoken glowingly of trade, peace and friendship.

Kozlov's schedule today included a meeting with Mayor Richard J. Daley, a visit to mechanized farms for growing corn and a visit to a typical American farm home.

ONE OF THE 7 BIG BESTS CHEVROLET GIVES YOU OVER ANY CAR IN ITS FIELD

Take it, not from us, but from official results of this year's Mobilgas Economy Run: Chevy's pennypinching 6 delivers the most miles per gallon in its field. For a pair of these Chevrolet sixes with Powerglide walked away with the first two places in their class, getting the best mpg figure—a whopping 22.38—of any full-size car.
And here are more expert, impartial opinions and on-the-record facts backing us up on Chevy's other six bests:

BEST TRADE-IN
Check the figures in any N.A.D.A.*
Guide Book. Chevrolet used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two."

BEST STYLE
It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCIENCE

BEST BRAKES
In direct competitive tests of repeated stops from highway speeds, conducted by NASCAR, Chevrolet out-stopped both of the other leading low-priced cars—and why not? Chevy brakes are far larger, built with bonded linings, to help lengthen brake life by as much as 66%.

BEST ROOM
Official dimensions reported to A.M.A.† make this clear. For example, Chevy front seat hip room is up to 5.9 inches wider than comparable cars.

BEST ENGINE
Every motor magazine has given Chevrolet's standard and Corvette
V-8's unstinted praise. As SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED puts it:
"Indeed this device is surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

BEST RIDE
MOTOR TREND magazine calls Chevy "... the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." You'll be able to tell this yourself, instantly. And your Chevrolet dealer can tell you about a long list of other advantages besides these 7 big ones!

Roger Craig Regains Touch, Beats Braves

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Maybe you remember Roger Craig, the big right-hander who made his debut with the Braves in mid-1955 and gave the National League pennant and their only world championship.

He won 12 in 1956, then lost the touch. So did Bessent, and they wound up in the minors.

Now Craig's back and he's got the touch again. Unbeaten, he won his fourth in a row Thursday night, with 11 innings of three-hit shutout relief that paid off with a 4-3 Los Angeles victory in 13 innings over Milwaukee.

The San Francisco Giants jumped into the National League lead, by a half-game over the Dodgers and a full-game over the Braves, with a 3-2, ninth-inning victory at Cincinnati that ruined

Fred Hutchinson's debut as manager of the Reds.

Reliever Elroy Face won his 13th in a row, 13th this season, as third place Pittsburgh defeated the Chicago Cubs 4-3 in 10 innings.

Philadelphia and St. Louis split a two-night doubleheader, the Cards winning 6-2 after the Phils had taken the opener 11-0 behind Gene Conley's seven-hit pitching.

In the American League, Chicago's second place White Sox trimmed Cleveland's lead to one game, beating the Indians 4-3. Third place Baltimore blanked Washington twice, 8-0 and 5-0, in a two-night doubleheader behind right-handers Milt Pappas and Jerry Walker. Boston ousted New York 14-3. And Ray Herbert and Johnny Kucks each pitched five-hit shutouts as Kansas City stretched Detroit's losing string to six, 5-0 and 4-0.

Craig's brilliant relief job outdistanced a two-man try by Braves' starter Joey Jay and Warren Spahn, the loser in relief. They had blanked the Dodgers after Norm Larker's tying, three-run pinch homer in the third.

Craig, following starter Donny McDewitt, retired 26 of the 27 men he faced. He walked none, struck out three.

Spahn (10-9) gave up five hits and struck out five (for a total of 13 Dodger chumps) while losing his fifth in a row to the Dodgers.

District Ball Tournery Opens Nashville 13th

NBC District Commissioner George Castleberry announced today the district baseball tournament would begin in Nashville Monday, July 13, scheduling being as follows:

Monday, July 13, 8 p. m. — Texarkana Bears vs. Old Rockland.

Tuesday, July 14, 8 p. m. — Hope vs. Prescott.

Wednesday, July 15, 8 p. m. — Nashville vs. DeQueen.

Thursday, July 16, 8 p. m. — Fouke vs. Glenwood.

Friday, July 17, 8 p. m. — Winner A vs. Dusters.

Semi-Finals
Saturday, July 18, 2 p. m. — Winner B vs. Winner C.

Saturday, July 18, 8 p. m. — Winner D vs. Winner E.

Finals
Sunday, July 19, 2 p. m. — Winner F vs. Winner G.

Winner of the District Tournament will be eligible to represent the Southwest District in NBC State Tournament which will be fourth this season. Always a jinx for the great southpaw, the Dodgers have a 29-14 edge over Spahn.

Willie Mays singled, stole second, then rolled home on Daryl Spencer's single for the Giants' winning run. It came off reliever Tom Acker (1-2), who came on after Don Newcombe was lifted for pinch-hitter in the eighth. Sam Jones (11-8) was the winner in relief.

A pinch single by Harry Bright won it for the Pirates and Face, who had given up a tying single by Tony Taylor in a two-run Cub ninth after relieving Vern Law. Bill Henry (5-4) lost it in relief.

Face, the most consistent winner ever among relievers, now has a string of 18 scoreless innings and an 0.80 earned run average while topping the majors in victories.

Gene Freese hammered his third grand-slam of the year and Harry Anderson hit a two-run homer for the Phillies in the opener in support of Conley (7-5).

Ernie Broglio (3-8) was the loser. Larry Jackson (8-7) then won the nightcap for the Cards with Ken Boyer's third-inning home run clinching it against Robin Roberts (5-3).

Herbert, pitching his first shutout since breaking into the majors, played at Trumann, Arkansas July 25, 1959 under the supervision of Leroy Kinnons, 912 Toulson Ave., Fort Smith, Ark., NBC State Commissioner.

Double-Header Produces Pair of Shut-Outs

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Two pitchers combining for a doubleheader shutout over one club is rare in itself. Occasionally it happens twice in one season.

But it happened twice in the American League Thursday night. While Chicago's second place White Sox moved within one game of Cleveland by beating the Indians 4-3, Baltimore's right-handers, Milt Pappas and Jerry Walker, blanked Washington 8-0 and 5-0 in a two-night doubleheader.

And Kansas City's Ray Herbert and Johnny Kucks each pitched five-hit shutouts while whitewashing Detroit's tumbling Tigers 5-0 and 4-0.

The Tigers, who have lost six in a row, hadn't been handed a double shutout since Chicago's Merv Grissom and Joe Dobson did it on May 5, 1952. It hadn't happened to the Senators since Cleveland's Herb Score and Mike Garcia pulled it off Sept. 19, 1950.

The sweep by Baltimore lifted the Orioles out of a third place tie with the New York Yankees, who were walloped 14-3 by Boston.

In the National League, San Francisco jumped into first place by a half game with a 3-2 victory at Cincinnati. Los Angeles knocked Milwaukee from first to third with a 4-3, 13-inning victory over the Braves that hoisted the Dodgers to second.

Pittsburgh bent the Chicago Cubs 4-3 in 10 innings. St. Louis split a two-night pair at Philadelphia winning 6-2 after the Phils had taken the opener 11-0.

The Senators managed only one extra-base hit among their 11 off Pappas (9-4) and Walker (7-3) — a first game triple by Bob Allison. Walker allowed only four singles while gaining a 4-0 record over Washington. He has two shutouts in the majors—both four-hit jobs on the Nats.

Both youngsters walked but one man and struck out five. Pappas, also pitching his second shutout in the majors and like Walker just 20, was backed by Billy Gardner's two-run homer and Gus Triandos' solo 21st. Bob Nieman hit a two-run homer in the nightcap after Brooks Robinson stole home in the fifth for the only run Walker needed. Rus Kemmerer (5-8) and Pete Ramos (9-8) were the losers.

Herbert, pitching his first shutout since breaking into the majors, played at Trumann, Arkansas July 25, 1959 under the supervision of Leroy Kinnons, 912 Toulson Ave., Fort Smith, Ark., NBC State Commissioner.

Rob Graveyard for Horror Show Items
JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)—Police nabbed seven boys—ranging in age from 6 to 12—and said they had looted a graveyard of a human skull to hold their own version of a television horror session.

They were released in custody of their parents pending juvenile action.

Bob Cerv belted home runs in both games for the A's, getting his 10th in the opener against Frank Lary (9-6) and smacking his 11th with a man on the nightcap against Ray Narles (4-9), who also gave up a home run by Bill Tuttle.

Jim Landis drove in three runs for the White Sox and Bobbie Phillips clinched it with a six-run home run off loser Herb Score (9-6). Pirates (9-10) went all the way for the victory, after beating three in a row. Jim Bix extended the Indians' home run streak to 18 games.

Vie Wertz and Ted Williams each hit solo sixth home runs in the Red Sox and Boston A's. Rating 174 drove in four runs with a pair of home runs. Ted Williams' drive gave him four home runs in 2-13 innings and all were home runs. Frank S. Day, who was the winner for a 3-0 lifetime mark against the Yankees, who scored all their runs with two out in the fourth on Lee Lopez' single and doubles by Edmon Howard and Gil McDougald.

WATCH THE PUFFS
CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council suggests that, when you watch the exhaust pipe of the car ahead for smoke puffs, a puff puff means the driver has been hit from the rear by a car.

A sharp gust of smoke may mean the motorist ahead is speeding up so that you will be unable to pass.

Jordan Fights Teen-Ager for Welter Title

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Don Jordan of Los Angeles risks his welterweight boxing crown tonight against an exuberant teen-ager who hopes to become the youngest fighter ever to win the title.

The challenger is 19-year-old Denny Moyer, who will be fighting before home town supporters in the scheduled 15-round outdoor bout at the Portland Meadows race track. He is ranked the No. 2 contender by the National Boxing Assn., No. 2 by Ring magazine.

The fight will be on NBC television except for a 200-mile area

daughter, Sney Lee, Johnny Jo remained for a longer visit.

around Portland. Weather forecasters said skies will be clear and the thermometer at 72 degrees or warmer.

Both fighters made the usual victory predictions, but with this difference: Jordan said he thinks he can stop Moyer; Moyer said his plan is to outpoint the champion.

Scoring will be by the 10-point must system, which requires award of 10 points for each round won. The loser of a round usually gets 9 points unless knocked down or beaten badly. That calls for 6 points or less.

Jordan, who has 14 knockouts in his 45-11 record, is considered the harder hitter; Moyer the faster boxer.

Moyer, who had a 72-10 record as an amateur, winning the National AAU welterweight crown in 1957, has won 20 straight since turning professional.

Columbia ranked third in the number of oil wells drilled in Arkansas during 1957.

Malvern Schools to Permit Dancing

MALVERN, Ark. (AP)—The Malvern Special School District Board has voted to allow dancing in some schools after a survey of parents showed a majority favored it.

Dancing will be allowed in both white and Negro high schools and the Negro Junior high school. School officials said the decision will be on a case-by-case basis. In the instructions, Egypt has a million.
